

CofC Directors Endorse School Bond Proposal

Following serious study of the recently published school survey, the Torrance Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, Monday afternoon endorsed the plan which calls for a $2,000,000 bond issue.

Reporting to the board on his review of the survey was

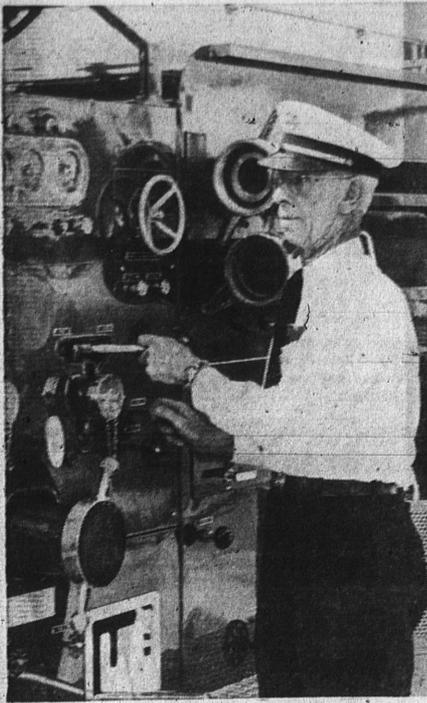

R. L. Pionert, Jr., chairman of the Torrance Industries Tax Committee. Pionert indicated that the survey did not cry "wolf" but if anything trended toward the side of conservatism. Other action of the board included the approval of the membership of Gilbert Woodhill of the Rome Cable Corporation, which recently purchased the Anderson-Carlson Manufacturing Company.

United States. C. T. Rippey who is undertaking a study of the downtown parking problem reported he was ready to refer his findings to the Parking Committee for examination and suggestions. He recommended that whatever the solution to the problem, it should be given wide circulation in order that all retail merchants and the public might be fully informed.

FIRE CHIEF JOHN E. McMASTER
... Death Ends 19 Year Career

Last Rites Spoken Saturday for John McMaster, Local Fire Chief

Services for John Edward McMaster, who for 14 years served as Torrance Fire Chief, were held Saturday, 1 p.m. at the Stone and Myers Chapel. McMaster, 63, a resident here for 32 years, died suddenly of a heart attack last Wednesday night.

The Masonic Lodge conducted services which were followed by interment at Inglewood Cemetery.

Queen' Bailey To Crown Local Queen at Ball

The fire chief, who lived at 915 Cota avenue, is survived by the widow, Grace McMaster; a son, John E. McMaster Jr. of Torrance; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Keeler of Inglewood; and another daughter, Mrs. Helen Lidyards of Fall Church, Virginia.

Several million witnesses from coast to coast heard Jack Bailey, emcee of the "Queen for a Day" broadcast, announce that he would come to Torrance to perform a duty at which he has had great experience—crowning a queen.

When Mrs. F. P. Foley, recently appointed general chairman of this year's Torrance queen contest, appeared on the nationwide radio show, she told Bailey her wish was that a celebrity would come to Torrance to crown the queen at a coronation ball in May.

Though she failed to make the grade as queen, Mrs. Foley was promised by Bailey he would not only crown the queen but would appear in the kick-off parade to be held on April 22.

Purpose of the local queen contest is to raise funds to augment the YWCA building fund.

JANE WYMAN TO STAR

Academy Award winner Jane Wyman stars with Beatrice Pearson, and Mel Ferrer on United States Steel's January 22 broadcast of "The Willow and I," via stations of the National Broadcasting Company network at 5:30 p.m.

NAME NEW OFFICERS

W. E. Bowen, for two years president of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board, was elected vice-president of the board, at a recent election held in Torrance.

Succeeding the two-term president was James Schmitt of the Lomita realty firm, Elliott and Schmitt.

Other new officers elected were Perry Connett, treasurer, and Gretchen Earle, secretary.
